Woburn Memorial High School

88 Montvale Avenue, Woburn, MA 01801

It seems like just yesterday we were hopping on a giant yellow school bus, off to the first day of kindergarten, when now, more than 10 years later, we're jumping in our cars and cruising towards student parking as senior year draws to a close. Where did the time go?

From the innocence of elementary school, to the awkward transitions at the Joyce and the Kennedy, all the way to becoming our true selves at Woburn Memorial High School, these past years have been a journey all their own and although we've taken different paths and different routes to get here, there's one common destination we approach: graduation.

Looking back, along the way, we've wondered countless times, "Are we there yet?!" and now we finally are. We've arrived at this crossroads where high school ends and a new reality begins. Nothing is certain. There's no map to guide us through this uncharted territory we're about to enter but as we stand at this intersection between what was and what will be, we have a valuable chance to reflect on who we are, who we've become, and on our past four years of high school.

Welcome To The Wu

Whether you have lived in Woburn all your life or you just moved in not too long ago, it's obvious that for everyone who lives in this great city, 01801 is much more than just a zip code. These five numbers represent our hometown, all the places we know and love, that we pass each day on our ride to school and frequent with friends every weekend. Between Horn Pond, Rag Rock, Bill and Bob's, Nanabette's, Breakers, and even Wu Burger, Woburn and all of its noteworthy locations have become a part of us over the years, a part we will not soon forget.

Located just 12 miles north of Boston, the city of Woburn was first settled in 1640 by Captain Edward Johnson, making it one of the oldest and most historic cities in New England. Later, during the Civil War, the demand for shoe leather gave rise to Woburn's leather tanning industry and, of course, the name of our beloved mascot the "Tanner" bull. History surrounds us here, from the Woburn Public Library, a national historical landmark, to the extraordinary happenings of everyday.

No matter where we find ourselves in the future it's important to remember we will always have in Woburn a community 38,000 strong waiting to welcome us back home.

History of Innitou

Of all the landmarks and locations that define the city of Woburn, Horn Pond holds a special place in all of our hearts. Throughout our lifetimes, many fond memories have been made at Horn Pond, beginning with being pushed around the winding paths in carriages as infants, continuing to racing around hidden trails on bikes and scooters as children, and ending now as teenagers exploring the uncharted territory of the pond and climbing to the very top of its mountain to witness the breathtaking view of the city of Boston with friends close by our sides. Over the years, spending time at Horn Pond has offered countless adventures, too many to name. But, it's important to remember, these adventures began long before any of us could've been seen walking the familiar paths and admiring the landscapes.

Hundreds of years ago, our Horn Pond went by a different name: Lake Innitou, home to the Massachusetts tribe. These Native Americans lived atop Mount Towanda, now known simply as Horn Pond Mountain, along with the Great Spirit, Manitou. Legend has it that when the light was just right, this spirit's reflection could be seen on the water's surface, giving the pond its former name Innitou, or "Looking Place of the Great Spirit."

Just as Lake Innitou was named to celebrate the Great Spirit's reflection on the pond's waters, our yearbook was given the name Innitou to recognize a special opportunity for reflection on our time in high school. Each page in itself reflects the memories and experiences we lived for the past four years as clearly as the sparkling blue waters of Horn Pond so that these landmarks in our lives may never be forgotten.

Faculty spirit ...

Cornhole Anyone?

Always willing to jump in and have some fun for the pep rally, our faculty members love showing off in front of their students. School spirit has to start from the top and that is why our faculty is always willing to participate, or maybe it's because they just want to feel like a teenager again? Whether it be the flash mob dance with members of the Woburn community, lip sync contest or participating in the annual tug of war, they all know how to have fun!

Dedication

COACH William "Bill" O'Connor

There is an expression that a coach will impact more young people in one year than the average person does in a lifetime. So just imagine how many young people have been influenced over the past 44 years by a coach who left a legacy of positive attitude and team spirit in these halls. We, the Class of 2017 overwhelmingly decided to dedicate our yearbook to a person who has influenced so many, our beloved Coach Bill O'Connor.

A true Tanner who participated in indoor, outdoor and cross country as a member of the class of 1961 at Woburn High, he continued his love for running at Northeastern University and began his teaching career as a physical education teacher in Northborough, MA. By 1986, Coach O'Connor decided to come back home to Woburn High, starting as an assistant coach and then becoming head coach for indoor track, adding cross country coach along the way.

Coach had an admirable career over the years, as he was selected as Coach of the Year and elected into the Massachusetts State Hall of Fame. His athletes meant the world to him. Whether they came in first or last, he was always there at the finish line cheering them on and keeping impeccable notes of each and everyone's running time and personal best. His positive coaching philosophy welcomed anyone who wanted to participate in running because he created a family atmosphere among his runners. This chemistry worked, as year after year, young athletes continued to break individual and team records, including numerous title wins in the Middlesex League, State and National Championships.

Coach O'Connor was a kind, thoughtful gentleman who will be remembered for his passion, sincerity and true love of the running, but most importantly, he will forever be in the hearts of those who were lucky enough to be in his presence.

As different as our high school paths may have been, we all shared a common academic struggle. If freshmen year was a carefree elevator ride to the next class, junior year was a hard fought trek from the cafeteria to math class in E Hall on the fourth floor. From balancing chemical equations with Ms. Joseph and Mr. Kaufman, to writing endless essays for Ms. McMahon and Ms. Ress, there's no question about it: we have battled, through countless hardships, countless classes, and countless hours of homework. But thanks to some inspiring advice from Mr. Skeff and plenty of determination, we've made it and we're ready to take all that we've learned in high school with us on the road ahead.

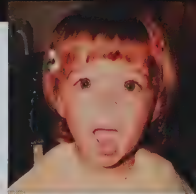

ALONG THE WAY

It's hard to believe that the chubby, smiling faces that cover these pages once belonged to those we've seen pulling into student parking and traipsing through the halls many years later.

We've all grown up so much since our days in diapers but are somehow still recognizable, marked by the same familiar glowing smiles and glistening eyes. Cuddling treasured toys and enjoying the blissful ignorance of childhood, we all took our first steps towards what we would one day become.

On a crisp, early day of September 2004, our once hesitant and unbalanced first steps became a fast-paced run as we dashed towards the next stop in growing up; elementary school. Big yellow school buses delivered us to the first day of kindergarten where we soon learned our ABC's and made our first friends on the playground. All six years of elementary school were full of important learning experiences and new friendships: in preparation for the lifetime of challenges ahead only hinted at during the happy days of grade school.

The third stretch on our journey through education started at the beginning of middle school. A time of transition for all, middle school undoubtedly holds some of the most embarrassing and cringe worthy memories of all. Thankfully for us, up ahead, high school was just around the corner, but for many the three years of junior high could not seem to end soon enough.

SUMMER road trips

Summer has always been a sweet, although temporary, escape from the books, homework, teachers, and most importantly stress. With the summer sun comes long days spent at the beach, lounging by the pool, and hanging out with friends. Later curfews and the freedom of the open road, make summer the perfect time for road trips as well as lasting memories sitting around the fire or driving around aimlessly with friends. The best weeks of summer are spent on vacation at far off destinations or simply hanging out at favorite spots around the town. If only the warm, relaxing days of summer could last forever...

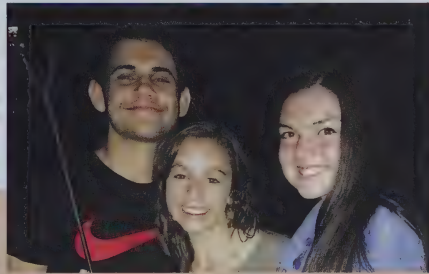

Joelle Perez-Howlett and Ariana Gelvez lean together for a pic. Quinn Stamps and Andre Eller enjoy the summertime. Elias Pomaes, Cayla Barretto, and Jayna Wallus get together on a summer night. Tati Silva laughs in the summer sun atop Dylan Abreu's shoulders. Maryssa Reynolds, Nicole Santos, Allie Lunetta, and Kezia Costa gather for a photo. Nicole Dirlenzo and Shannon Heneghan get ready for a swim. Jenna Canada, Tyler Catania, Damiana LoRusso, Nick Cherubino, Andrew Villegas, Arianna Lesslie, Chris MacKenzie, Radina Todorova, and Meghan O'Brien gather for a night out.

'17

Freshman year was a new beginning for all of us but as exciting as it was to be at a new school with new classmates, teachers, and hallways to discover, it was equally terrifying. When the first day of school finally came around, we left our houses, dressed in our newest back to school clothes, ready for a fresh start. As we walked through the doors, into the lobby for the first time, our hearts beat out of our chests. We didn't even know where our next class was, much less what to expect of the next 4 years of high school.

Warda Haji struggles to stay awake in class. Matthew Burke is looking forward to his year ahead. April Lynch is caught heading to an assembly. Timothy Forson, Sebastien Labissiere, and Alicia West try to find their way to first period. Kathryn Turner smiles as she heads into school. Alexis Duddy and Ricky Eckberg head to lunch. Hilda Corteggiano is pumped to be in high school.

in S through g spring

On the first day of spring, our freshmen year, we celebrated our very first high school dance. With flowers blooming all around us, decorating the lobby walls, we awkwardly danced to the music played by DJ Dan amongst our new classmates. As the first dance of our high school careers, Spring Fling was only a small taste of what the next four years of nights on the dance floor had in store.

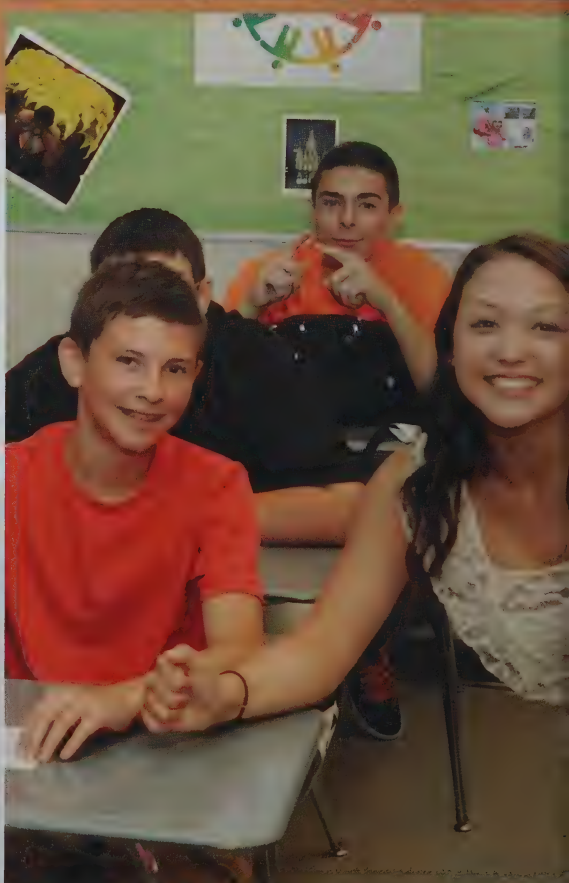

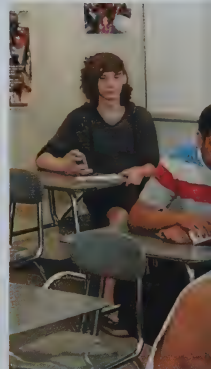

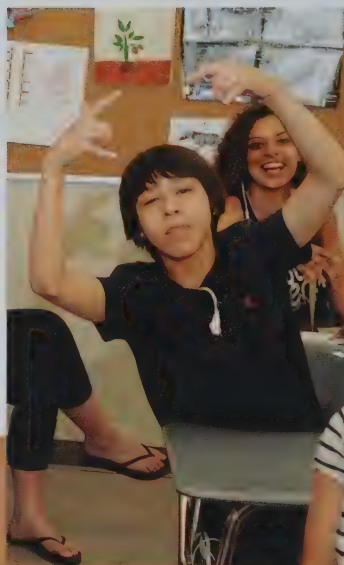

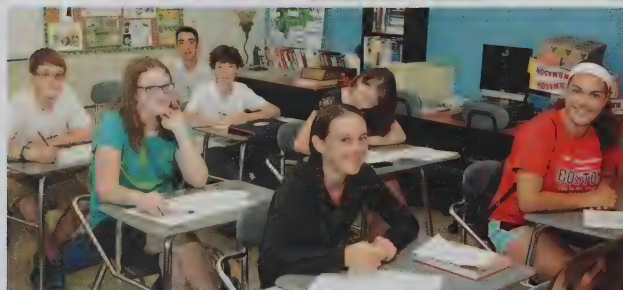

McKenna Canty, Phenelope Roldan, Jonathan O'Connor, Brooke Perry, Bryce Welton, Mary Hollohan, Isabel Urban, and Sam Puleo make silly faces for the camera. Brooke Perry, Mallory McFadden, and Sarah Pacini stand arm in arm. Marissa Teixeira, Kezia Costa, and Olivia Coviello gather for a pic. Jaimee Boag and Julia Blank laugh away. Mike McDonald and Joanes Vincent hang in the cafe. Vanessa Keating, Sarah Kimmelman, and Kat Turner throw on some shades and hats. Colin Roche, Sam Ficociello, Jade Romano, Abby McDaniel, and Aidan Platon straight face for the picture.

in 17 miles

Sophomore year, although we were still underclassmen, we found a new kind of confidence. We no longer worried about getting lost at every turn or walking into the wrong classroom. We had survived our first year of high school and we were ready for the next, ready for all the twists and turns and ups and downs that sophomore year would bring. Finally, we began to find our place, settling in to friend groups and joining new activities. Graduation still seemed miles away but finishing sophomore year was the only priority on our list.

TOWN

May 1st, 2015 marked the date of our first semiformal dance together as a class. Sophomore Semi was the first time we were really able to dress our best, but with that opportunity came lots of stress. What would we wear? Who would we go with? Where would we take pictures? Thankfully somehow we found answers to all these questions in time to spend a fun-filled "Night on the Town" in our beautifully decorated foyer complete with a city skyline and sparkling lights.

Julia Blank, Amanda Ciccirelli, Aubrie Jones, and Alex White strike a pose in the crowd. Aryton Zargani, Amari Lalo, and Joanes Vincent give a straight faced expression. Caleigh O'Riordan throws that hand up in the air. Taylor Lund and Jenna Canada pose pretty in white. Joe Carpinella and Priya Pai do the macarina. Nicole Dirienzo and Jack Turner take a breather from the dance floor. Alex Cioni and Radina Todorova are photographed in the crowd. Shannon Heneghan, Sam Autenzio, and Danielle Callahan get their dance on.

AHEAD

Nothing could have prepared us for the struggles that junior year would hold. Everyone always emphasized how important it was to do well junior year but all this pressure to succeed mixed with our hardest course loads yet, and not to mention SAT testing, lead to nothing but stress. Of course there were highlights to go along with the mental breakdowns, including our first prom and getting our licenses, but by June, we were more than ready to kiss junior year good bye.

Shannon Murphy grins for the camera in C3. Abigail McDaniel and Mya Blazejowski talk over coffee. David Stephan, and Joseph Carpinella laugh in music class. Tyler Catania and Jacob Walthall show off their lunch snacks. Steve Crann is spotted. Sean Thomas and Cemone Newton pose for a picture. Chris MacKenzie and Rachel Devine enjoy college accounting. Tyler Hayden, Dylan Abreu, and Tom Ferullo get pumped for ceramics. Mustafa Hussain, Nathan Steitz, and Nick Sweeney play on their phones during science class. Matt Power, John Flood, and Deveen Patel sit in the auditorium

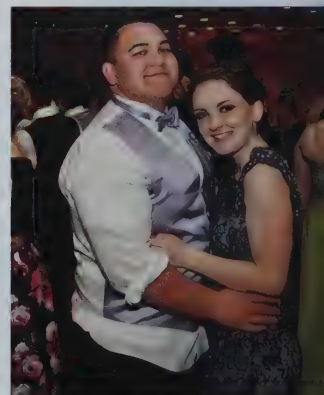

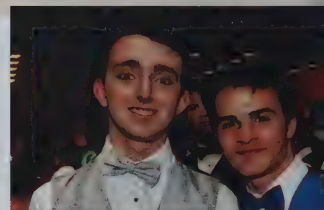

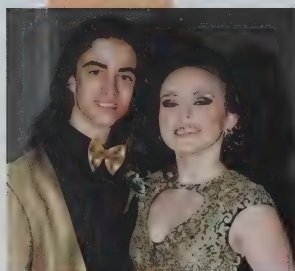

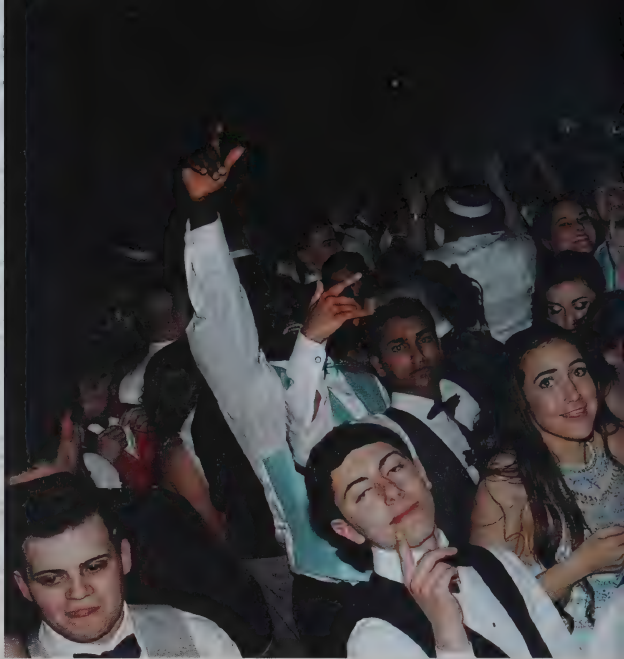

Even if many of the stresses of junior year would be better left forgotten, junior prom was a night to remember.

Finally, after years of dances spent inside the walls of Woburn High, we were able to escape to the Burlington

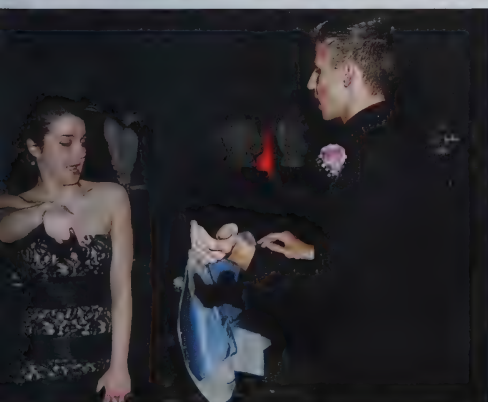

Marriott to enjoy an unforgettable evening on the dance floor. Although prom may have lasted only a few hours, the preparation began weeks in advance with finding the perfect date, dress, and more. When the big day finally did arrive, we headed to the high school to take pictures with our friends and classmates before making our way to the Marriott in time to spend the night together- smiling and dancing every worry away.

the Final

All good things must come to an end, including, of course, high school. As seniors, we were finally the ones to stand in front of every fan section, lead the clubs we'd come to love, and walk the halls knowing we were the ones in charge but as comfortable as we had become we could feel it all slipping away. Before we knew it high school would be behind us and as ready as we were for a new beginning the ending was still bittersweet.

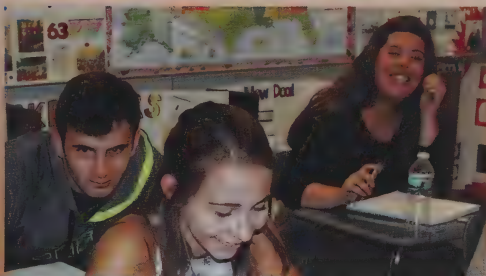

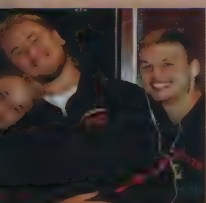

Tatiana Loughlin and Maryssa Reynolds take a picture before listening to class election speeches. Jessica Campos Correa and Shufurah Nakibuuka take a break in class to pose for a picture. Sarah Pacini and Emily Arrendono smile between classes. Thomas Rattery and Nathan Gonsalves discuss their new schedules. Anatomy class smiles for a picture. Zach Doherty, Sam Oliveira, Colin Roche, Chris Warwick, Charles O'Connor, and Dom Tringale giggle at Mr. Deldon's jokes. Laura Flagg, Molly Herbert, Aayushi Garg, and Erika Crampton chat before first period. Kyle Massey-Chorlton, Tyler Hayden, and Dalton Collins huddle together before an assembly. December really is the most wonderful time of the year and as seniors we got to experience the spirit of the holiday season in a whole new way at the Snow Ball, the last dance we would celebrate inside the walls of WMHS. We decked the halls with glittering snow flakes and danced the night away in shades of red and green until the final song, "All I Want for Christmas is You" concluded a night filled with holiday cheer.

Faculty

Looking back on the last four years it's clear that our time in high school represents an experience no simple set of directions can explain. It amounts to much more than our trips to and from school, around the hallways, from class to class, and even the transitions from year to year. Across the map, our different routes became tangled and intertwined as each of us made our way to graduation on paths somehow simultaneously shared and all our own. The road before us holds exciting new adventures and all we leave behind is full of enough heartwarming memories to last a lifetime.

Although, as seniors, we have all found our way to Woburn in one way or another it didn't necessarily start out that way. The senior class is made up of a diverse collection of personalities which come not only from states all across the country but also countries all around the world.

our route.

312 seniors. 312 different stories but for the past 4 years each one has started just the same: en route to Woburn Memorial High School. Whether it be by bus, car, or foot, all 312 of us set out for the same location. We traveled from 312 different addresses, different elementary and middle schools, but now it's Woburn High itself that links us together, a kind of common ground we'll never forget.

Clubs

Along the way, between classes and practices, clubs and activities have always served as important distractions and motivators during otherwise uninspired high school experiences. When days drag on and on, the promise of an after school meeting with Best Buddies, Learn, or Activities Committee becomes the perfect pit stop to brighten any afternoon. By engaging in the activities Woburn High has to offer, students find not only rewarding pastimes and plenty of fun but also discover their passions like government or community service and these activities become the most important motivators on the path toward graduation.

HOME

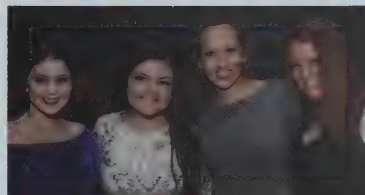

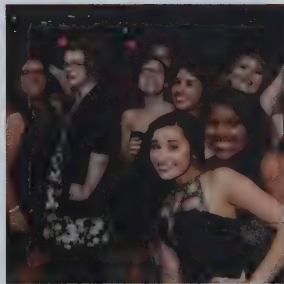

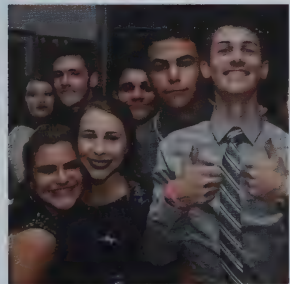

November 18th marked our final homecoming dance and the last chance for us to celebrate the beginning of the school year amidst friends from all different grade levels. Although it may have been the fourth homecoming dance we attended that's not to say it wasn't filled with surprises. A new DJ brought a fresh collection of remixes and songs while the votes for homecoming king and queen chose a mix matched couple as homecoming royalty, surprising the entire school. The king and queen along with everyone else continued to dance and had a great time together until the final song was played.

PEP in our step

Finally after 3 years of second place finishes and spirit week defeats, senior year, it was our time to show the school what Tanner Pride is really about. With the loudest cheering section and a victory in the tug of war, we well deserved our victory and surpassed all other classes in terms of spirit.

Using the clever slogan, "We fish, you fish. WU fish," the fishing club, despite just getting its start this September, has already grown to be 300 members strong and has organized successful fundraisers for both the Wounded Warriors Project and the Jimmy Fund.

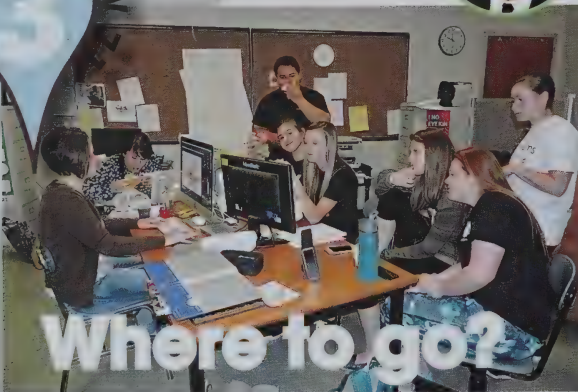

In April of Junior year, yearbook advisors Mrs. Thifault and Mrs. Getherall selected the yearbook staff. Very shortly after, the gang was trained by Susan Happel our Herff Jones Rep. We created the entire book on Adobe Indesign software. Look how cute we are.

We worked as a team and everyone brought their own personal style to the pages. Jade and Aidan were our go to photoshop people. Jenn filled all the pages with their creative writing. Liv, Amanda, Gabby, Joelle spent most of their time surveying people and designing their pages.

We spent many hours brainstorming ideas on the theme of the book and discussed what we wanted to be remembered for as a class. Finally it stumbled on us that what connects us is this very place and the map was born. Ashley Joiner and Susan Happel came from the Herff Jones to help us design our cover.

"Gummies round two!" - Amanda

"Jenn you're being a pondist!" - Aidan

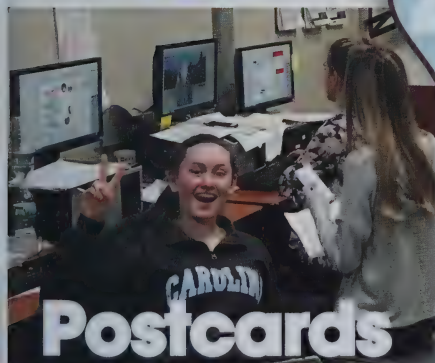

"I'm literally a ninja" - Gabby

follow along with us

Off to the plant

Before pages left us forever, the editors, Jade and Liv, would check everything to make sure they looked perfect. Pages were sent off to the plant in Kansas, MO, where they proofed, color corrected and prepped for production.

Postcards

As soon as we walked in the door on move up day freshman year, Mrs. Thifault, Mrs. Getherall, and Burlington Studios made sure we had plenty of photos that told the story of our years at WMHS. Gabby and Amanda went to work making sure that all our photos were organized and ready to go.

Write it down

Jenn did all of the writing for the book, making every sentence shine with creativity and 'map-related' words.

Map it out

Every single page of the book was custom designed during our 7th period, after school, or on the weekends. Everyone pitched in to get it done.

Thanks to are awesome leaders, Mrs. T. and Mrs. G; we were able to create an incredible yearbook.

As the class of 2017, what connects us is not any one quality or passion. We're a group made up of athletes, artists, scholars, and friends alike. Although differences between us exist what joins us together is not what we've done but where we've done it. All of our high school memories whether they've been spent out on the field, up on the stage, or in the classroom are rooted in the city of Woburn. As we grow older and inevitably spread out, traveling to all the corners of the world in pursuit of our dreams, we will always have a string tying us back to Woburn.

Aidan Platon

Nobody laughs like you do,
from the belly and from the heart.
Nobody smiles quite like you do,
your eyes shining and singing all at once.

No baby's cheeks were ever kissed as much as yours were, nor hair sniffed so much as you lay in angelic slumber.

And no parents' tears were ever more genuine than ours when we found out you were going to be born, our Aidan, fiery and defiant, and yet so lovable and kind.

You make us so proud!
We love you, Aidan!
Always, Mom, Dad, and Taylor.

BLOOD, SWEAT, TEARS & HUNDREDS OF MEDALS

DREAMS & DEFEAT

3. AN UNFORTUNATE MISSTEP for French gymnast Samir Ait Said resulted in a lower leg break during the men's qualifying round.

4. THE 100-METER HURDLES were dominated by Americans: Brianna Rollins, Nia Ali and Kristi Castlin who finished first, second and third, respectively.

IT'S WHAT THE OLYMPIC SPIRIT WAS MADE OF IN RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL.

11,237 OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST ATHLETES from all over the globe gathered in August to pursue lifelong dreams and compete for Olympic glory. There were firsts, as Rio was the first South American city to host the Olympic Games. There were records broken — the United States earning 121 medals — surpassing the previous record of medals earned (which they also held). There were downfalls in the form of injuries, controversies and losses. But there were, of course, tremendous and victorious triumphs, celebrations of nations coming together, demonstration of character and pure grit and moments of relishing in hard work, determination, talent and tenacity — true athletic prowess at its finest.

1. HELEN MAROULIS, the first American woman to earn Olympic gold in wrestling, defeated opponent Saori Yoshida of Japan.

2. NEYMAR DELIVERED A HOME TEAM VICTORY, earning Brazil soccer gold after scoring the winning penalty kick, 5-4 against Germany.

5. SOUTH AFRICA'S WAYDE VAN NIEKERK broke a 17-year-old record in the 400-meter race, earning gold with a time of 43.03 seconds. He largely credited his 74-year-old coach, former sprinter and long jumper, Anna Botha. 6. AFTER ACHIEVING A "TRIPLE-TRIPLE" by winning all three sprint titles at three consecutive games, Jamaican track and field star Usain Bolt declared his desire to be the greatest. 7. DEEMED THE "FINAL FIVE," Aly Raisman, Madison Kocian, Laurie Hernandez, Gabby Douglas and Simone Biles won nine medals at the Rio Olympic Games, breaking the previous record of eight medals shared by the 1984 and 2008 teams. The U.S. women's gymnastics team celebrated victory over all rivals with a total of 8,209 points; Russia fell to second place, while China came in third. 8. TWO DISTANCE RUNNERS COLLIDED during the women's 5,000-meter event. Abbey D'Agostino of the United States and Nikki Hamblin of New Zealand helped each other and finished the race with times of 17:10.02 and 16:43.10. 9. CHEN AISEN'S performance led China to their seventh gold medal in diving at the Rio Olympics. 10. THE UNITED STATES MEN'S OLYMPIC BASKETBALL TEAM won gold in the final knockout round with a victory over Serbia and a score of 96-66. This was the team's third consecutive gold medal.

US SWIMMERS: AN UNSTOPPABLE CLASS OF ATHLETES

U.S. SWIMMERS were standout athletes at the Rio Olympics. Michael Phelps, the most decorated Olympian of all time, picked up five more gold medals and a silver, bringing his collection to a total of 28. The 31-year-old confirmed plans to retire and said he wouldn't compete in the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo. Female U.S. swimmers Katie Ledecky and Simone Manuel each made history in Rio. Ledecky broke her own record in the 800-meter freestyle, becoming the first woman to sweep the 200, 400 and 800 freestyle races since 1968. Manuel tied for gold in the 100-meter freestyle, making her the first African American woman in history to win an individual Olympic swimming medal.

A COUNTRY THING

The album also won Best Urban Contemporary Album at the Grammys

ICONIC SOUNDS & ATTITUDES

THERE WAS MUCH MORE TO THE MUSIC SCENE THAN JUST TOP HITS.

5. LADY GAGA performed the halftime show at Super Bowl LI, opening with a rendition of "This Land Is Your Land." She began her set on top of the NRG Stadium in Houston, Texas with a fleet of illuminated drones behind her, before seemingly leaping and appearing on stage to perform hit songs like "Poker Face," "Telephone" and "Bad Romance."

ERA OF VARIED OPINION & VAST DIVIDE

THE 2016 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION was a particularly unusual political journey from the beginning.

Seventeen major Republican candidates entered the race in early 2015, making it the largest presidential primary field for any political party in American history.

By May 3, only three of whose Republican candidate remained: Donald Trump, Ted Cruz and John Kasich. Trump became the presumptive nominee on May 4, and, on July 15, officially announced via Twitter that Mike Pence was his chosen running mate.

On the other side, opinion polls predicted Hillary Clinton as the front-runner. Democratic presidential nominee, she was up against Bernie Sanders, Martin O'Malley and Lincoln Chafee. Clinton and Sanders took turns winning important caucuses and primaries, but on July 12, Sanders withdrew and officially announced his endorsement of Clinton.

On July 22, she announced Tim Kaine as her running mate. Both Trump and Clinton were formally nominated during the respective Republican National Convention in Cleveland.

Ohio from July 18-21, and The Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania from July 25-28.

Clinton focused on raising middle class incomes and women's rights, while Trump focused on stable income tax cuts, illegal immigration and the repeal of the Affordable Care Act. The two discussed these issues, and more, at the first of three presidential debates on September 3, which became the most-watched debate in American history, with more than 80 million viewers.

On Nov. 8, 2016, Trump became president-elect with 306 electoral votes. Republicans maintained control of the Senate and House of Representatives.

WORLDWIDE HEAT WAVE; RECORD-BREAKING TEMPS

RECORD TEMPERATURES were reached globally in the month of July — and it wasn't just the warmest July, but the warmest of any month on record dating back to the 1800s. It beat out the previous warmest month on record, which occurred in 2015. Britain experienced an unusually high temperature of 89.6° F in September, a temperature not reached since 1949. In August, New York's heat index reached 105° F, which led Mayor Bill de Blasio to issue an extensive heat warning. Similar warnings throughout the world were not uncommon. China issued a yellow weather alert in regards to the heat and Chile did the same.

SHIFTING GROUND AND STANDING ROCK

WIDE OPPOSITION OF THE DAKOTA
ACCESS PIPELINE LED TO DISORDER

THERE ARE TWO SIDES to every story. This time, the battle was over the Dakota Access Pipeline that would transport oil from the Bakken oil fields of North Dakota to the plains of Illinois — if only its last mile and a half of 1,700 miles could be completed. The center of opposition was the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe, who occupied land near the development site. Thousands of protesters and many Native American tribes also opposed the project. Energy Transfer Partners claimed the construction of the pipeline would lead to greater economic development, as well as increased safety and efficiency, but the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe argued the development would destroy ancestral land, threaten their water supply and be an overall burden to residents of the tribe. Environmental activists named more consequences, such as man-made climate change, should construction of the pipeline move forward. Following the lengthy battle, President Donald Trump signed executive orders that advanced approval of the pipeline only four days following his inauguration.

1. THE SENATE passed a $602 billion defense bill which included an amendment that would require women to register for the military draft for the first time in history.
2. A TRUCK PLOWED through a crowd on Bastille Day in Nice, France, killing 86 people and injuring hundreds more. ISIS later claimed responsibility for the incident.
3. THE DECREASED VALUE of Venezuela's bolivar resulted in the country's deep recession, a decline in exports and an extreme shortage of food and supplies.
4. IRAQI, KURDISH AND ALLIED FORCES began an operation to retake the city of Mosul from the Islamic State, which gained control in June 2014. The forces advanced into the city just two weeks into the campaign.
5. THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT announced the redesign of some U.S. currency, including the $20 bill on which abolitionist Harriet Tubman would replace Andrew Jackson.
6. WELLS FARGO CEO JOHN STUMPF resigned after millions of fake accounts were uncovered from as far back as 2011, allowing employees to boost sales figures. More than 5,300 employees were fired and the company was fined $185 million, in addition to the $5 million they were required to refund to customers.

7. THE IRAN NUCLEAR DEAL, the agreement between the United States and Iran that essentially blocked Iran's access to nuclear weapons and increased visibility into their nuclear activity, looked successful a year after it was implemented. 8. THE UNITED KINGDOM voted 52% to 48% to leave the EU in a referendum in June called "Brexit" meaning "British exit." The majority in both England and Wales voted to leave, while the majority in Scotland and Northern Ireland voted to remain. The terms of the exit would have to be agreed upon by 27 different parliaments, so some believed the actual process would take years to complete.

9. A GENETICALLY MODIFIED MOSQUITO was developed by British company, Oxitec, to fight the Zika virus, and was confirmed by the FDA to cause no significant impact on human health or the environment. The OX513A male Aedes aegypti mosquito was engineered to pass along a lethal gene to wild female mosquitoes that would cause their offspring to die. 10. THEN PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA spoke at the September opening ceremony of The National Museum of African American History and Culture situated on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. The museum spanned 400,000 square feet and held more than 36,000 artifacts.
